EXPEDITED MOTION TO REQUIRE THE RECEIVER TO CONTINUE TO HOLD IN TRUST $107,500 OF THE PROPERTY SALES PROCEEDS THAT ARE THE RES OF MS. FINLEY'S EQUITABLE LIEN CLAIM THROUGH ADJUDICATION OF THE MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION, OR ALTERNATIVELY, MOTION FOR A STAY PENDING APPEAL

Basis for Expedited Relief:

This request is made on an expedited basis in order to prevent transfer of the res of Ms. Finley's equitable lien claim to avoid it potentially being unrecoverable if Ms. Finley prevails on the Motion to Reconsider or, if necessary, on appeal to the Eleventh Circuit. Eliminating the res of Ms. Finley's equitable lien would cause irreparable harm to Ms. Finley and continuing to hold the funds in trust, as the Receiver previously agreed, does not harm or prejudice the Plaintiffs or Receiver.

Non-party, claimant Amanda Finley ("Ms. Finley") files this Expedited Motion to Require the Receiver to Continue to Hold in Trust $107,500 of the Property Sales Proceeds that are the Res of Ms. Finley's Equitable Lien Claim through Adjudication of the Motion for Reconsideration [D.E. 454], or Alternatively, Motion for Stay Pending Appeal (the "Motion") of this Court's Order Denying Ms. Finley's Motion for Imposition of Equitable Lien Based on the Separately Contributed Funds for the Purchase of the Real Property [D.E. 404] (the "Motion for Equitable Lien") located at 300 Royal Plaza Dr. Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301 (the "Property") [D.E. 451] (the "Order"), which rejected the Report and Recommendation of the Honorable Barry S. Seltzer [D.E. 419] (the "Report and Recommendation") attached as Exhibit A, and in support, states as follows:

BACKGROUND

Ms. Finley is an innocent non-party claimant in this case. She acted as the real estate agent for the purchase of the Property, which she subsequently resided in as her homestead. In order to contribute to the purchase of her homestead Property and for her proportional ownership of the Property, she contributed $107,500 of the commission for the purchase of the Property that was unequivocally contractually payable to Ms. Finley. See attached as Exhibit B the Independent Contractor Agreement between Florida Coastal Realty Group (the "Broker") and Ms. Finley (the "Broker Agreement") at 2 ¶ 3(c)(1) (explicitly entitling Ms. Finley to 90% of the fee as commission for sales); s*ee also* attached as Exhibit C the Property Closing HUD-1, Lines 209, 703. With her Broker's express permission, Ms. Finley chose to contribute $107,500 to the purchase of the Property. Ms. Finley's properly earned income was paid by the homebuilder and seller of the Property, Estate Homes, LLC (the "Seller"), so it was not traceable at all to the Defendants' funds or fraud. See Exhibit A, Line 703. Ms. Finley made this contribution based on the reasonable expectation and contractually required result that she would own that portion of the Property and she did, in fact, own the Property as a tenancy-by-the-entireties owner. Ms. Finley is seeking her equitable interest and proportional ownership right in the Property for her separate and independent contribution to the Property that the Receiver expressly agreed that she maintained the right to assert. See attached as Exhibit D the Receiver's September 2017 letter to Ms. Finley confirming her reservation of rights as to the $107,500.

On August 29, 2019, Ms. Finley filed the Motion for Equitable Lien. On September 13, 2019, the Receiver filed a Corrected Response to the Motion for Equitable Lien [D.E. 413]. On September 18, 2019, Ms. Finley filed a Reply to the Receiver's Corrected Response [D.E. 415]. On September 27, 2019, the Judge Seltzer entered the Report and Recommendation to grant the Motion for Equitable Lien. The Plaintiffs and Receiver Objected to the Report and Recommendation [D.E. 425, 426]. On October 25, 2019, Ms. Finley filed a Response to the Objections [D.E. 429]. On January 31, 2020, this Court entered the Order. On February 13, 2020, Ms. Finley filed a Motion for Reconsideration of the Order [D.E. 454] and this Motion.

ARGUMENT

I. THE COURT SHOULD REQUIRE THE RECEIVER TO HOLD THE $107,500 RES OF MS. FINLEY'S EQUITABLE LIEN IN TRUST PENDING ADJUDICATION OF THE MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION AND THROUGH CONCLUSION OF ANY APPEAL.

On an expedited basis, the Court should require the Receiver to continue to hold the $107,500 in his trust account because if he is permitted to transfer the funds it would result in dissipation (whether intended or not) of the res of Ms. Finley's equitable lien claim, which would cause irreparable harm to Ms. Finley by potentially extinguishing her ability to obtain the funds to which she is entitled.

A. Legal Standard

The Court should consider fours factors in determining whether to grant a motion for stay:

(i) the likelihood the moving party will prevail on the merits;

(ii) the prospect of irreparable injury to the moving party if relief is withheld;

(iii) the possibility of substantial harm to other parties if relief is granted; and

(iv) the public interest.

See LabMD, Inc. v. Federal Trade Commission, 678 Fed. Appx. 816, 819 (11th Cir. 2016) (granting motion for stay pending appeal) (citing Nken v. Holder, 556 U.S. 418, 425–26, (2009). In order for Ms. Finley to prevail on her Motion, she "must demonstrate that the equities lie strongly in [her] favor." Freeman v. Cavazos, 923 F.2d 1434, 1437 (11th Cir. 1991). "The first two factors ... are the most critical." See LabMD, Inc., 678 Fed. Appx. at 819. However, Ms. Finley may have her "motion granted upon a lesser showing of a 'substantial case on the merits' when 'the balance of the equities [identified in factors 2, 3, and 4] weighs heavily in favor of granting the stay.'" Id. (citing Ruiz v. Estelle, 650 F.2d 555, 565 (5th Cir. 1981) (per curiam)).

B. Ms. Finley is Likely to Succeed in the Motion for Reconsideration, or Alternatively on Appeal to the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

Ms. Finley has a substantial likelihood of success on the Motion for Reconsideration, or alternatively on appeal to the Eleventh Circuit based on: (i) the strong Report and Recommendation decisively in Ms. Finley's favor; (ii) the facts underlying her request for equitable lien; (iii) the critical, new evidence demonstrating her unequivocal entitlement to the $107,500 contribution, which support her representations to the Court as an officer of the Court during this entire proceeding; (iv) binding Eleventh Circuit case law supporting an innocent spouse having a claim to their contribution to a property in similar cases; and (v) the unjust enrichment and forfeiture that results absent the equitable lien.

i. The New Evidence, Ms. Finley's Independent Contractor Agreement with the Broker, Evidences Her Entitlement to the $107,500 Contribution for the Purchase of the Property and Warrants the Court Reconsidering the Order.

On February 11, 2020 (eleven days after the Court entered the Order), Ms. Finley obtained from the Broker critical new evidence that this Court ruled was lacking when ruling on Ms. Finley's equitable lien claim. See Order at 5. The Broker Agreement between Ms. Finley and the Broker evidences her clear contractual entitlement to 90% of all commission earned as a real estate agent in any sales transaction. See Ex. B at 2 ¶ 3(c)(1). The Broker Agreement clarifies and confirms what Ms. Finley stated to the Court throughout all of the briefing on the Motion for Equitable Lien – that she was contractually and legally entitled to the $107,500 that she chose to contribute to the purchase of the Property. See Ex. B at 2 ¶ 3(c)(1).

Ms. Finley believed that by submitting the HUD, the contract for the purchase of the Property listing Ms. Finley as the real estate agent, and making statements as an officer of the Court to this effect that she submitted sufficient evidence of her claim. See Ex. C at lines 209, 703; see also attached as Exhibit D the Contract for the purchase of the Property at 12. The Report and Recommendation agreed stating "Finley's statements … are both unrefuted and presumptively credible … Finley is a member of the Bar in good standing. See Holloway v. Arkansas, 435 U.S. 475, 486 (1978) (accepting the tenet that "attorneys are officers of the court, and when they address the judge solemnly upon a matter before the court, their declarations are virtually made under oath."). Report and Recommendation at 4. Since Judge Seltzer found that Ms. Finley submitted sufficient evidence that she was entitled to an equitable lien, Ms. Finley did not believe that she needed to obtain and submit additional evidence to support her entitlement in responding to the Objections. Id.

The Court found in contrast that Ms. Finley did not provide "evidence of the transaction, i.e. that she was contractually entitled to the $107,500 … Put differently, she did not produce a contract evincing that Florida Coastal agreed to pay her this money and that she was the real party crediting the commission towards the purchase price of the home." Order at 5. After the Court made this ruling, which for the first time questioned Ms. Finley's contractual entitlement to these funds, Ms. Finley contacted her former Broker and the Broker sent her the Broker Agreement on February 11, 2020. Ms. Finley did not have a copy of the Broker Agreement until the eleventh day after the Court's ruling. See Ex. B. Therefore, Ms. Finley's new, critical evidence demonstrating Ms. Finley's entitlement to the $107,500 contribution, which was not traceable to fraud or the facts underlying this case, should prompt the Court to reconsider the Order and grant the Motion for Equitable Lien, or alternatively, will serve as a basis for success on appeal.

ii. The Broker Agreement Demonstrates that Ms. Finley's Contribution to the Property Was Separately Earned, Which was Ultimately Paid by the Seller's Clean Funds.

The Court determined that Ms. Finley's contribution was not separately earned. Order at 8. The new evidence supporting that the rebate was her separately earned income pursuant to the Broker Agreement, supports Ms. Finley prevailing on reconsideration of this issue or success on appeal. The rebate that Ms. Finley elected to provide from her income as a real estate professional as separately earned and a monetary contribution to the Property of clean funds that are not traceable to fraud. Every dollar of the $107,500 contribution for the purchase of the Property was unequivocally contractually payable to Ms. Finley from her Broker on or about the closing of the Property. See Ex. B. Now Ms. Finley has obtained the Broker Agreement that this Court viewed as necessary to determine that she was entitled to these funds and her separate contribution should be viewed as separately earned and subject to recovery through the requested equitable lien.

Furthermore, Ms. Finley's separately earned contribution to the Property came directly from the Seller's clean funds. The Court referenced that "the HUD shows that the property was purchased with all cash from the buyer and reflects that no cash was provided by the seller at closing." Order at 8. In fact, Ms. Finley's properly earned income and commission was specifically paid by the homebuilder and seller of the Property, Estate Homes, LLC (the "Seller"), as shown in the documentary evidence before the Court, so it was not traceable at all to the Defendants' funds or fraud. See Ex. C, Line 703; see also Report and Recommendation at 6 ("in fact, the commission was paid by the seller, as it usually is. (See DE 404: Ex. A, ln. 703).").

Under Florida law, there is a presumption that the seller pays the commission on listed properties even in the absence of an agreement. See R.C. Hilton Assocs., Inc. v. Stan Musial & Biggie's Inc., 702 F.2d 907, 908 (11th Cir. 1983) ("[i]n the absence of any special agreement, when a seller places property with a broker for sale, he impliedly agrees to pay a customary commission to the broker.") (citing Kerdyk v. Hammock Oaks Estates, Inc., 342 So.2d 833, 835 (Fla. 3d DCA 1977)). Here, the commission from the Seller's clean funds is even stronger than the customary presumption that the seller pays the commission because the documentary evidence (the HUD) shows that the Seller paid all commission. See Ex. C, ln. 703.

This scenario is as if at the closing table the Broker earned $157,500; the Broker retained its 10% fee ($15,750); the Broker paid Ms. Finley 90% of the fee ($141,750); and Ms. Finley chose to retain $34,250 and pay $107,500 for the purchase of the Property in which she intended to and did reside with her young child for years. Ms. Finley made this contribution based on the reasonable expectation and contractually required result that she would own that portion of the Property, which she did, in fact, own the Property as a tenancy-by-the-entireties owner. The Broker Agreement proves that Ms. Finley's contribution was not functionally, legally, or practically any different from her paying money from "her clean bank account towards the purchase of the home," which this Court stated would have changed the analysis in favor of Ms. Finley. Order at 8.

"[T]he commission Finley earned as a real estate sales associate is independent of the underlying fraud scheme that was the genesis of the receivership." Report and Recommendation at 5. Ms. Finley's earnings from her services as a real estate agent had nothing to do with the Defendants' debt business or any of the facts and allegations underlying this receivership case, so there is no record support to find that it would be tainted or that it was any different from the money coming directly from her clean bank account. Therefore, Ms. Finley will prevail on the Motion for Reconsideration, or alternatively on appeal, because her separately earned contribution to the Property stemmed from her independent contractor relationship with her Broker, which entitles her to an equitable interest commensurate with her proportional ownership right in the Property.

iii. Eleventh Circuit Case Law Supports Ms. Finley Recovering Her Full Contribution to the Property that is Not Traceable to Fraud.

Binding Eleventh Circuit case law requires the imposition of an equitable lien under these circumstances when not all of the funds used to purchase a property are traceable to fraud. See e.g., Fin. Federated Title & Trust, 347 F.3d at 892 (limiting the interest a receiver may obtain in a property to the amount traceable to fraudulent funds); In re Hecker, 316 B.R. 375, 390 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 2004), aff'd, 264 F. App'x at 791 (an innocent spouse "may be entitled to assert a claim to a portion of the proceeds prospectively to be derived from a sale of the [Property] based on the amount of her contributions to the purchase price.").

Ms. Finley submits that it is reversible error for the Court to not acknowledge Ms. Finley's contribution to the Property equivalent to clean funds paid at closing from her income for her services as a real estate agent under the Broker Agreement, which was not traceable to fraud, and to allow her claim to those funds as the (now) undisputedly innocent spouse. Notably, the Receiver and Plaintiffs do not assert that any of Ms. Finley's other real estate commissions earned were tainted or traceable to fraud, nor could they since there are absolutely no facts or legal authority to support such a notion.

In the Order, the Court analyzed the Defendant's cash contribution to the Property and found (without the Receiver filing another separate motion for equitable lien) that the Court would sua sponte grant the Receiver an equitable lien in the Property that could take priority over Ms. Finley's earlier-acquired interest resulting from her untainted contribution to purchase the Property. Order at 6. The Court ignored the precedent that the Receiver did not establish an equitable lien through his prior motion because the Property was turned over by stipulation. See Agreed Order [D.E. 212]; see also In re All Star Mortg. Fin. Corp., 411 B.R. 774, 782 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 2009) (discussing the effect of unperfected equitable liens).

The Court also overlooked that the Receiver could never claim to be a bona fide purchaser without knowledge or notice since he expressly agreed to Ms. Finley's right to assert an equitable lien for $107,500 in writing prior to Ms. Finley's quit claiming her interest at his request. See Report and Recommendation at 5 n.3; see also attached as Exhibit E the Receiver's 2017 letter confirming Ms. Finley's reservation of rights as to her $107,500 contribution to the Property. Notably, the Receiver did not object to this finding in the Report and Recommendation.

Even if the Receiver be granted an equitable lien without filing a separate motion based on a ruling on Ms. Finley's Motion for Equitable Lien (not the Receiver's motion), it should not bar Ms. Finley from obtaining an equitable lien for her separate contribution to purchase the Property, which was deducted from the amount of cash the Defendant had to contribute and was the equivalent of Ms. Finley paying $107,500 clean cash at the closing.

Next, the Court found that Hudgins would allow the Receiver's previously undetermined equitable interest to essentially negate or supersede Ms. Finley's equitable claim because the Property depreciated. Order at 7-8 (citing Commodity Futures Trading Comm'n v. Hudgins, 620 F. Supp. 2d 790, 792 (E.D. Tex. 2009). The Eleventh Circuit was clear in allowing an innocent spouse to claim their contribution to a property and prohibiting a Receiver from obtaining more than the amount paid with proceeds of fraudulent funds. See e.g., Fin. Fed. Title & Trust, 347 F.3d at 892; Hecker, 316 B.R. at 390, aff'd, 264 F. App'x at 791. Since Ms. Finley's contribution was not traceable to fraud, she should be able to equitably retain it and any depreciation of the Property is irrelevant to defeat the innocent spouse's contribution to the Property from her clean funds. The Hudgins case from the Eastern District of Texas is, at most, persuasive and importantly only addresses funds directly traceable to fraud. Hudgins, 620 F. Supp. 2d at 792. This highly distinguishable case does not sufficiently support the Court's ruling that is contrary to Eleventh Circuit precedent. See e.g., Fin. Fed. Title & Trust, 347 F.3d at 892; Hecker, 316 B.R. at 390, aff'd, 264 F. App'x at 791.

The Receiver induced Ms. Finley to transfer the Property at his and the Plaintiffs' insistence (under a clear reservation of rights). Ex. E. Then, years after the transaction, claimed that any equitable right was extinguished by that transaction or should be a nullity by subordination to the interest. That is not equitable and results in unjust enrichment to the receivership, which can only be remedied by the requested equitable lien. Therefore, Ms. Finley will prevail on the Motion for Reconsideration or on appeal to the Eleventh Circuit, which will likely follow its own precedent.

iv. The Court Erred in Ruling that Fla. Stat. § 475.42(1)(d) Bars Ms. Finley's Motion for Equitable Lien.

The Court conducted an analysis of Fla. Stat. § 475.42(1)(d) and determined that the Motion for Equitable Lien was an action to recover a sales commission. Ms. Finley asserts that the Court's statutory analysis was not in line with any Florida case law interpreting Fla. Stat. § 475.42. Initially, the statute is inapplicable because Ms. Finley never sought a brokerage lien or direct payment of unpaid commission. Instead, she was seeking reimbursement of her contribution to the Property, which funds are no longer representative of commission. There is no dispute that the commission in this case was already paid years ago at closing. Neither Ms. Finley, nor her Broker had to "maintain an action for commission" because the Seller voluntarily paid it. See Fla. Stat. § 475.42(1)(d). Rather, Ms. Finley is seeking an equitable lien so that she may to collect the clean funds that she earned for her services as a real estate professional that she contributed to the purchase of the Property based on these specific facts in which she was induced to deed the Property away voluntarily to the Receiver under a clear reservation of rights. See Exs. B-D.

There is no authority at all to support the notion that previously paid commission maintains its status as "commission" years later after it was used to purchase a property such that Fla. Stat. § 475.42 would bar future litigation over the contributor's ownership or equitable rights to the property sales proceeds. Following the Court's reasoning, any real estate agent's commission rebate to purchase a property, which years later resulted in litigation over ownership or equitable rights, could be barred under Fla. Stat. § 475.42 – even if not against the seller or payer of the commission. This is an improper statutory interpretation. In fact, none of the parties submitted one case that supported the proposition that Fla. Stat. § 475.42(1)(d) applies to recovery of already paid commission against a party that was not the seller or initial payer of the commission. The Court also cited none, and after extensive research, it seems that none exists.

There is, however, ample case law supporting a more limited statutory interpretation holding that Fla. Stat. § 475.42(1)(d) bars a real estate sales associate from directly suing for unpaid commission from the seller or owner because the broker must be the one to sue. See e.g., Bergin v. Kickliter, 538 So. 2d 950, 951 (Fla. 2d DCA 1989) (the only case cited by the Court in which a sales associate tried to sue a seller for unpaid commission); Scachitti v. DMC Real Estate Dev., Inc., No. 607-CV-1003-ORL-19DA, 2008 WL 4853617, at *5 (M.D. Fla. Nov. 10, 2008) ("Plaintiff [sales associate] is asserting a claim for unpaid commissions in his own name against parties that are not registered as his employer," which was found to be impermissible); Marks v. M.S.F. Mgmt. Corp., 540 So. 2d 138, 140 (Fla. 5th DCA 1989) ("Only Marks's broker at the time he performed the services can sue the seller directly.") (emphasis added); Campbell v. Romfh Bros., 132 So. 2d 466, 468 (Fla. 2d DCA 1961) (holding that a sales associate co-plaintiff suing a seller for unpaid commission violated Fla. Stat. § 475.42(1)(d)).

Similarly, no case law exists at all applies Fla. Stat. § 475.42(1)(d) to bar a motion for equitable lien for commission that was paid at closing and then used to contribute to the purchase of the Property many years prior to litigation arising over the contributor's equitable interest from that payment. Respectfully, the Court's ruling runs contrary to all Florida law interpreting Fla. Stat. § 475.42(1)(d). The commission was already paid by the Seller on July 7, 2016. These facts do not support the conclusion that Fla. Stat. § 475.42(1)(d) would bar Ms. Finley's Motion for Equitable Lien. In any event, the Motion for Equitable Lien is seeking an in rem claim to the sales proceeds of the Property based on Ms. Finley's clean contribution and cannot be construed as an "action" against anyone for payment of commission. Therefore, Ms. Finley should succeed on reconsideration or on appeal regarding the manifest errors in law in the Order ruling that Fla. Stat. § 475.42 barred Ms. Finley's Motion for Equitable Lien.

v. Ms. Finley's Divorce Affidavit that Was Filed After She Was Divested of Her Ownership and After the Receiver Obtained Sole Control of the Property Does Not Warrant Denial of the Motion for Equitable Lien.

The Court twice referenced that Ms. Finley did not list the Property on her divorce affidavit or "request that the state court award her any interest in the home." Order at 3; see also Order at 6. Importantly, when the affidavit was filed on April 4, 2018, Ms. Finley had already deeded the Property over at the Plaintiffs' and Receiver's insistence nearly over seven months prior on September 6, 2017. In addition, on January 30, 2018, months prior to the filing of the affidavit, this Court already ruled that the Defendant was required to vacate the Property and immediately "turnover the title and possession of the property … to the Receiver … [and] ordering the Receiver to take exclusive possession." See Agreed Order [D.E. 212]. The Defendant was permitted to reside in the Property, but did not even maintain a tenancy interest. Id. In March 2018, again a month before Ms. Finley filed the affidavit, the Defendant had already vacated the Property, per this Court's Order, and the Receiver took exclusive possession.

By the time of filing the affidavit, at most, Ms. Finley maintained a contingent, unliquidated equitable claim to the Property that had not yet been sought or adjudicated by the only forum with jurisdiction to determine ownership of the Property – this Court. Since the Defendant had already vacated the Property and relinquished all rights to the Property to the Receiver months prior, the Property was no longer a dispute that could be properly decided in the divorce case or by the state court. Only this Court maintained jurisdiction over the Property as property of the receivership. The Court stated that Ms. Finley should have "requested that the state court in her divorce safeguard that interest" in the Property. Order at 6. However, if Ms. Finley had sought to assert her interest in the Property state court, undoubtedly the Receiver would have objected or intervened to prevent the state court from ruling on issues that were in the sole purview of this Court. Ms. Finley should not be penalized for seeking adjudication of her in rem claim to the Property before the only Court that has jurisdiction over the Property and in the case involving the party that maintained exclusive control of the asset - the Receiver and not the Defendant. Therefore, the Court's reliance on Ms. Finley's divorce affidavit twice in the Order was erroneous, which will allow her to succeed on reconsideration or appeal.

vi. Equitable Lien Claims Do Not Need to be Based on a Loan and are Well-Supported to Combat Unjust Enrichment.

The Court ruled that because Ms. Finley's contribution to the purchase of the Property was not a loan and "Finley had no reasonable expectation based on the terms of the deal that she would be repaid the money" that the Court then found "difficult … to find that equity requires that she now be compensated." Order at 5. There is no such requirement that an equitable lien stem from a loan. In fact, an equitable lien to combat unjust enrichment is overwhelmingly supported under Florida law. See e.g., Palm Beach Savings & Loan Assoc. v. Fishbein, 619 So.2d 267 (Fla. 1993); Spridgeon v. Spridgeon, 779 So. 2d 501, 502 (Fla. 2d DCA 2000); Della Ratta v. Della Ratta, 927 So. 2d 1055, 1059 (Fla. 4th DCA 2006) (allowing an equitable lien for expenses and improvements to a property based on unjust enrichment); Frambach v. Dunihue, 419 So. 2d 1115, 1117 (Fla. 5th DCA 1982) (allowing an equitable lien to prevent unjust enrichment and indicating that a claim is even stronger when "part of the purchase price" is paid, which may allow for a claim of a constructive or resulting trust); Johnson v. Craig, 158 Fla. 254, 255, 28 So. 2d 696, 697 (1946); Sonneman v. Tuszynski, 139 Fla. 824, 831, 191 So. 18, 21 (1939) (allowing an equitable lien on real property for "money advanced" and labor and services performed).

In this case, Ms. Finley is seeking exactly what is allowed - an equitable lien for the money that she actually advanced to purchase the Property. Respectfully, the Court disregarded this line of case law and the unjust enrichment that would result absent the equitable lien. The right to an equitable lien is even stronger in this case where a monetary contribution to the Property was for ownership (rather than a loan) and the ownership was unilaterally taken due to no fault of the co-owner and separate contributor, particularly when that co-owner obtained a reservation of rights agreement from the one taking the Property. See Ex. E. Ms. Finley will prevail on the Motion for Reconsideration or on appeal because refusing to grant an equitable lien would undoubtedly lead to unjust enrichment, which is a clearly defined basis for an equitable lien.

Finally, this Court states without analysis that 'Finley obtained the benefit of that bargain when the purchase price was rebated" and that her collecting her contribution would be "akin to giving her a windfall." Order at 5. However, the Court does not explain at all how she received any benefit of her bargain. The only way that she would have received the benefit of her bargain would be by her having a proportional ownership in the Property for that amount of money. However, this interest was taken, due to no fault of Ms. Finley, and was only relinquished with the explicit understanding that she maintained her right to assert her equitable claim to the Property. See Ex. E. The only way Ms. Finley would get a windfall would be if she was able to retain that proportional ownership and receive $107,500 on top of that. In this case, if the Order is not reconsidered, Ms. Finley would have lost her proportional equitable ownership and she would have lost her entire contribution that created that ownership. She would have gotten nothing in exchange for $107,500 she contributed while the Receiver would have kept the full value of the Property, including Ms. Finley's $107,500 contribution. Equity and basic fairness contradict this result, which would result an unquestionable windfall for the Receiver at Ms. Finley's sole expense. Therefore, considering the new evidence, Ms. Finley will prevail on her Motion for Reconsideration, or alternatively on appeal to the Eleventh Circuit.

C. Ms. Finley Will be Irreparably Harmed Absent the Requested Relief.

Ms. Finley will be irreparable harmed if this Court does not grant this expedited request to require the Receiver to continue to hold the $107,500 in his trust account during the Court's adjudication of the Motion for Reconsideration, and alternatively, during any subsequent appeal to the Eleventh Circuit. There must be an "identifiable res for an equitable lien to attach." In re 21st Century Satellite Commc'ns, Inc., 278 B.R. 577, 585 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2002). These funds constitute the res of Ms. Finley's equitable lien claim and will likely be transferred, paid, and possibly no longer recoverable if the Court does not require that the Receiver hold the funds in trust through final resolution on the merits. If the Receiver is permitted to transfer the funds during the pendency of the Court's consideration of this Motion or any appeal, it would result in dissipation (even if not intended) of the res of Ms. Finley's equitable lien claim, which would cause irreparable harm to Ms. Finley by potentially extinguishing her ability to obtain the funds that she is entitled to if she ultimately prevails. The law supports maintaining the status quo during an appeal and that is all that Ms. Finley is requesting. Therefore, this factor militates towards granting the Motion.

D. The Plaintiffs and Receiver Will Not be Harmed if the Court Grants the Motion.

Ms. Finley is only seeking for the Receiver to continue to hold the $107,500 proceeds of the sale in trust pending the decision by the Eleventh Circuit, which in no way harms the Receiver or the Plaintiffs. The Receiver previously agreed to hold these funds in trust pending the adjudication by this Court. The circumstances have not materially changed after the Receiver initially agreed to hold the funds in trust such that continuing to do so would prejudice the Receiver or the Plaintiffs in any way. Ms. Finley is merely asking for opportunity for a fair review by this Court, and if necessary, by the appellate court, and for the res of her equitable lien to be intact if she prevails. The Receiver continues to request that this case remain open for him to prosecute and investigate claims, so this request does not elongate administration of the estate or unduly prevent closure of this case. There is no burden to the Plaintiffs or the Receiver in holding these funds for a short time longer until this Court rules on the Motion and, if applicable, any appeal to the Eleventh Circuit concludes. Therefore, this weighs heavily in Ms. Finley's favor.

E. The Public Interest Supports the Motion.

Numerous public interests support this Motion. First, there is a public interest in a party recovering property that is unequivocally owed to them. See Ex. B-E. Second, no "consumer is currently at risk" by the Court requiring these funds to be held in the Receiver's trust account pending a final adjudication on the merits. LabMD, Inc., 678 F. App'x at 822. Third, the law supports maintaining the status quo in order to facilitate a resolution on the merits through appeal because the "ability to appeal … is a 'substantial and important right.'" See CW Capital Asset Management, LLC v. Burcam Capital II, LLC, 2013 WL 3288092, *9 (E.D.N.C. June 28, 2013) (stating the public interest favors a stay because "denying a stay in this case will likely moot appellate review."). As explained above, the Motion for Reconsideration and any appeal could be rendered meaningless if the requested stay is denied because the res of her equitable lien could be transferred or hopelessly commingled if the Court does not grant this Motion. Finally, "[f]orfeitures are not favored in the law." United States v. $ 38,000.00 in U.S. Currency, 816 F.2d 1538, 1547 (11th Cir. 1987)). The Court's ruling results in Ms. Finley forfeiting her $107,500 contribution to the Property of funds that are not traceable to fraud. Granting this Motion would help potentially mitigate such forfeiture. Therefore, the public interests support the Motion.

CONCLUSION

WHERFORE, Ms. Finley respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order granting the Motion to Require the Receiver to Continue to Hold in Trust $107,500 of the Property Sales Proceeds that are the Res of Ms. Finley's Equitable Lien Claim through Adjudication of the Motion for Reconsideration, or Alternatively, Motion for Stay Pending Appeal, and any further relief that this Court deems just and proper.

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE LOCAL RULE 7.1(A)(3)

I HEREBY CERTIFY that, pursuant to Local Rule 7.1(a)(3), Amanda Finley conferred with the Receiver and Plaintiffs on this matter prior to filing the Motion in a good faith attempt to resolve the issue without Court intervention. The Plaintiffs and Receiver did not give a position on the Motion because they requested to review the Motion before commenting. Ms. Finley will attempt to meet and confer again in a good faith attempt to resolve the issue without Court intervention after they review the filing.

CASE NO. 17-60907-CIV-MORENO/SELTZER

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

JEREMY LEE MARCUS, et al.,

Defendants.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

THIS CAUSE is before the Court on Amanda Finley's Expedited Motion for Imposition of Equitable Lien on Real Property Located at 300 Royal Plaza Drive, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301 ("Motion") (DE 404). This matter was referred to the undersigned Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636 and the Magistrate Rules of the Local Rules of the Southern District of Florida (DE 407). The undersigned has carefully considered the motion and the record, and is otherwise fully advised. For the reasons stated below, it is RECOMMENDED that Finley's Motion (DE 404) be GRANTED.

I. BACKGROUND

This dispute invokes the Court's equitable authority to distribute assets in a receivership, namely, the proceeds of a home sale. The receivership was created to benefit victims of Defendants' fraudulent debt-relief scheme. (DE 6, 21). The particulars of the scheme are not relevant for present purposes, and the bulk of the underlying litigation between the plaintiffs and the individual defendants was concluded in April 2008 based on a series of stipulated orders (DE 212, 231, 232). Among other things, the stipulations provided for the turnover of certain assets belonging to Defendant Jeremy Marcus, as well as injunctive relief and damages (Id.).

At the time this litigation was initiated, non-party Claimant Amanda Finley ("Finley") was Marcus's spouse, as well as a co-owner and tenant-by-the-entirety of real property located at 300 Royal Plaza Drive, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301 ("Property"). It is undisputed that in exchange for Finley's cooperation in marshalling receivership assets, and to eliminate the need to join her as a defendant in the underlying lawsuit, the Receiver recognized her potential right to assert an equitable lien in the Property based on her financial contributions to its purchase price. That contribution, $107,500, was rebated by Finley from a commission she earned as the buyer's sales associate on the purchase.

Because the Property was purchased in part by Marcus based on the proceeds of the fraud, this asset, or at least a portion of it, was subject to eventual turnover. Accordingly, the Receiver wrote Finley a letter inviting Finley to quitclaim her interest in the Property by "agree[ing] that [Finley] [was] not waiving any potential right [she] may have to assert an equitable lien in the property based solely on a brokerage fee [she] claim[ed] to have earned in its purchase . . . ." (DE 415, Ex. A). Finley assented and provided the Receiver a quitclaim deed (DE 406: 7-8). At some point thereafter, however, the Receiver adopted the inconsistent position that the quitclaim deed extinguished her equitable interest. (See DE 411: 10-11).

Ultimately, the Receiver arranged a sale of the Property. At the insistence of the title insurance company, the Receiver further requested that Finley execute a special warranty deed disavowing any homestead interest in the property. In principle, Finley did not object to executing the deed, but before doing so, sought reassurance from the Receiver that she would not be waiving her entitlement to seek an equitable lien on the sale proceeds. Unwilling to agree, the Receiver moved to compel Finley on an expedited basis to execute the special warranty deed. (DE 406). The Receiver ultimately agreed to hold $107,500 in trust pending the resolution of Finley's equitable lien claim. While maintaining that Finley was not entitled to the equitable lien, the Receiver argued that "it can be addressed on a different day." (Id.). Finley subsequently executed the special warranty deed (DE 409), and the day to resolve her equitable lien claim has now arrived.

II. DISCUSSION

Courts must look to applicable state law when determining whether an equitable lien should be imposed. See, e.g., In re Fin. Federated Title & Tr., Inc., 347 F.3d 880, 886 (11th Cir. 2003). In Florida, an equitable lien may be granted upon "general considerations of right or justice" as applied to the particular circumstances of a case. See Jones v. Carpenter, 106 So. 127, 129 (1925); Ross v. Gerung, 69 So.2d 650, 652 (Fla. 1954). In Palm Beach Savings & Loan Assoc., F.S.A., et al. v. Fishbein, 619 So.2d 267, 271 (Fla. 1993), the Florida Supreme Court further recognized that the imposition of an equitable lien may be appropriate, even on a homestead property, "in order to prevent unjust enrichment" and "where equity demands." Id. Whether to impose an equitable lien in the receivership context is a matter of court discretion. Cox Enterprises, Inc. v. Pension Ben. Guar. Corp., 666 F.3d 697, 701 (11th Cir. 2012).

Given the particular circumstances of this case, the undersigned concludes that the imposition of an equitable lien on the sale proceeds is appropriate. Several considerations compel this conclusion.

Initially, the Receiver does not dispute that Finley rebated $107,500 towards the purchase of the Property.[1] Indeed, Finley has provided the Court with a HUD-1 settlement statement confirming the rebated amount, as well as a contract identifying Finley as the sales associate entitled to a commission on the purchase transaction (DE 404, Exhs. A-B). The Receiver did not object to these exhibits. Accordingly, the undersigned will credit the exhibits, as well as Finley's statements (which are both unrefuted and presumptively credible[2]), as sufficient to establish the fact that Finley's personal funds, earned in the course of legitimate employment, were used to pay down a portion of the Property's purchase price.

The Receiver then expressly agreed, as a condition of Finley quitclaiming her interests in the Property, that Finley did not "waiv[e] any potential right . . . to assert an equitable lien in the property based solely on a brokerage fee [she] claim[ed] to have earned in its purchase . . . ." (DE 415, Ex. A).

But after receiving the benefit of his bargain, the Receiver is now arguing the opposite: that the very quitclaim deed he expressly induced by recognizing Finley's ability to litigate her equitable claim at a later time, in fact, extinguished her equitable claim. This is a prototypical example of a "gotcha" argument, and the undersigned is unmoved by it.

[1] Rather, the Receiver disputes that Finley is a "broker." (DE 411: 11). Finley, however, does not claim to be a "broker," nor does she seek the imposition of a "broker's lien," as confusingly argued by the Receiver.

[2] Finley is a member of the Bar in good standing. See Holloway v. Arkansas, 435 U.S. 475, 486 (1978) (accepting the tenet that "attorneys are officers of the court, and when they address the judge solemnly upon a matter before the court, their declarations are virtually made under oath.") (quotations omitted).

Had the Receiver taken this position at the outset, Finley would have had her day in Court as a party to the underlying lawsuit and could have asserted her equitable claim at an earlier stage in these proceedings.

Accepting the Receiver's argument would require the undersigned to conclude that the Receiver's agreement was a mere ruse or trick. Applying the principles of equity, the undersigned declines to endorse this result and concludes that an equitable lien should be imposed in Finley's favor on the basis of her financial contributions to the purchase of the Property. See, e.g., In re Hecker, 316 B.R. 375, 390 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 2004), aff'd, 264 Fed. Appx. 786 (11th Cir. 2008) (recognizing that an innocent spouse may be entitled to assert a claim to a portion of the proceeds prospectively to be derived from a sale of a property based on the amount of her contributions to the purchase price). [3]

The undersigned further concludes that if the Receiver were permitted to retain Finley's contribution, it would amount to an improper windfall for the Receiver because the commission Finley earned as a real estate sales associate is independent of the underlying fraud scheme that was the genesis of the receivership. The Receiver has not explained how it would be entitled to this sum. Indeed, the Eleventh Circuit has instructed that a trustee's interests over fraudulently acquired real estate can be no greater than the

[3] The Receiver alternatively argues that even if Finley were entitled to an equitable lien, it would be subordinate to the Receiver's equitable lien. The undersigned disagrees.

First, the Receiver did not establish an equitable lien because the Property was turned over by stipulation of the parties. See In re All Star Mortg. Fin. Corp., 411 B.R. 774, 782 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. 2009) (unperfected equitable interest is subordinate to the interest of a judicial lien creditor under Florida law) (citing In re Mabbott, 255 B.R. 787 (Bankr. M.D. Fla. 2000)). Nor was the Receiver a bona fide purchaser without notice since he expressly agreed to Finley's reservation of rights prior to the the transfer.

Second, Finley's contributions to the property are akin to a purchase-money security interest, which would take priority over the Receiver's lien, even if he had one. See generally Fla. Stat. § 679.324.

amount fraudulently obtained and used to benefit the land. In re: Fin. Federated Title & Trust, Inc., 347 F.3d 880, 892 (11th Cir. 2003). Applying that maxim here, the Receiver's equitable interest in the Property does not extend to Finley's sales commission.

Finally, the undersigned addresses the doctrine of "unclean hands." Despite his various statements appearing to conflate Finley's conduct with those of her ex-husband, the Receiver has provided no evidence to support its assertion that Finley was complicit in the fraud or that her sales commission was tainted in any way. Contrary to the Receiver's repeated assertions that the commission was "comprised entirely of stolen funds," (DE 411: 13, 14), in fact, the commission was paid by the seller, as it usually is. (See DE 404: Ex. A, ln. 703).[4] Although the Receiver accuses Finley of enjoying an "extravagant lifestyle" and failing to "pay rent" for living in her own house, these remarks, even if true, are wholly insufficient to establish unclean hands. See generally Calloway

[4] The undersigned is troubled by the Receiver's repeated accusations—and subsequent failure to produce evidence of—fraudulent misconduct by Finley. In particular, the Receiver makes the following unsupported assertions: (1) "Amanda [Finley] was a participant . . . of the debt relief scheme." (DE 411: 3); (2) "Immediately after Amanda [Finley] had notice of this Court's asset freeze, she violated the freeze . . . ." (Id.: 12); (3) "[Amanda Finley] utilized her real estate commission, comprised entirely of stolen consumer funds, in the acquisition of the Property . . . ." (Id.: 14); (4) "[Amanda Finley] and Jeremy [Marcus] ended up getting back over $158,000 in overages after closing." (Id.), and; (5) "The Receiver has undisputably [sic] traced the monies Defendant Jeremy [Marcus] and Amanda [Finley] used to purchase the Royal Plaza Property as coming from the Receivership Defendants . . . ." (Id.: 17).

The undersigned notes that previously, the Receiver strongly implied in his First Interim Report that Finley fraudulently utilized a federal judge's judicial stamp to approve a payment to herself in an unconnected litigation. (DE 19: 37-38). That document has since been restricted and amended after the Receiver revealed that it had not conducted an adequate investigation prior to making the false accusation. (DE 70: 37). Although the undersigned will presume the good faith of the parties, the Receiver's mistake was egregious and reckless at best.

The undersigned is further displeased with the Receiver's unprofessional and disparaging references to Amanda Finley—a member in good standing of the Florida Bar—as "Amanda." The Receiver shall address litigants appropriately in future filings.

v. Partners Nat. Health Plans, 986 F.2d 446, 450 (11th Cir. 1993). The undersigned has considered the Receiver's remaining arguments and finds them to be without merit.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, therefore, the undersigned respectfully RECOMMENDS that the Motion for Imposition of Equitable Lien (DE 404) be GRANTED. The parties will have fourteen (14) days from the date of being served with a copy of this Report and Recommendation within which to file written objections, if any, with the Honorable Federico A. Moreno, United States District Judge. Failure to file objections timely shall bar the parties from a de novo determination by the District Judge of an issue covered in the Report and shall bar the parties from attacking on appeal unobjected-to factual and legal conclusions contained in this Report except upon grounds of plain error if necessary in the interest of justice. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 149 (1985); Henley v. Johnson, 885 F.2d 790, 794 (1989); 11th Cir. R. 3-1 (2016).

responsible for providing Associate's own automobile and is responsible for transportation expenses, including insurance in the minimum coverage amount of $ 100,000 for personal injury protection liability and insurance in the minimum coverage amount of $ 300,000 for bodily injury liability and insurance in the minimum coverage amount of $ 10,000 for property damage liability and other expenses incidental to performing Associate's duties without receiving any reimbursement from Broker. Broker will be named as an additional insured in all such policies.

(g) Indemnification: Associate will indemnify and hold Broker, its officers, directors, and employees harmless from all claims, demands, suits, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees at all levels, of whatever nature and description to the extent based on Associate's representations, acts, omissions, negligence, willful misconduct, or violation of laws, rules, regulations, codes of ethics, this Agreement, or office policy manual.

3. Broker Responsibilities:

(a) Access to Listings: Broker will provide Associate with access to all current listings of Broker and listings made available to Broker through offers of cooperation, except those listings that Broker, in her/his/its discretion places exclusively in the possession of another associate.

(b) Access to Facilities: Associate may use Broker's then existing office facilities for the performance of Associate's duties as described above.

(c) Compensation: Broker will negotiate all terms and conditions of fees charged clients, including but not limited to the amount and payment date. Broker will compensate Associate in proportion to Associate's output with regard to real estate-related activities and not to hours worked by Associate. Such compensation will be solely through commissions as described below or in Broker's office policy manual, if any. In the event of conflict between Broker's office policy manual and this Agreement, the terms of the office policy manual will prevail. Broker may deduct from Associate's compensation any amounts due from Associate to Broker.

(1) Amount; Payment: When Associate performs any brokerage service for Broker and Broker earns and collects a fee for such service, Broker will pay Associate within 3 days after the funds are collected and have cleared:

90	% of the fee as commission for	Sales
90	% of the fee as commission for	Rentals
90	% of the fee as commission for	Options

(2) Dividing Compensation with Other Licensees: If two or more associates participate in rendering a brokerage service to the public, or claim to have done so, Broker will determine, in Broker's sole and absolute discretion, the amount of the fee due Associate.

(3) Incentives: If a seller or listing office offers a premium, bonus, or other incentive, if such premium, incentive, or bonus is in the form of money, then 100% of the incentive as commission for associate.

If such incentive is other than money (i.e., a cruise, trip, or other matter having economic value but not delivered in money), then such premium, bonus, or incentive will go to ☐ Broker ☒ Associate. If a nonmonetary incentive goes to Associate, Broker will report the fair market value of the incentive as income to Associate, as Broker must collect and deliver the incentive to Associate to preserve the respective legal positions of the parties.

(4) Benefits: Associate will be provided no minimum salary, vacation pay, sick leave, or any other fringe benefit.

(5) Collection of Fees: Broker will not be required to prosecute or sue any party in order to collect any fee for services performed by Associate. However, if Broker incurs attorney's fees and costs in the collection of or attempt to collect a fee, such amounts will be deducted from Associate's commission in the same proportion as provided for herein in the division of the fee.

(6) Compensation after Termination of Agreement: After termination of this Agreement, Broker will pay Associate any amount earned before termination less amounts owed to Broker and amounts Broker must pay another licensee to complete pending transactions for which Associate was responsible before termination.

4. Errors and Omissions Insurance: ☒ Broker maintains Errors and Omissions insurance which coverage includes Associate. ☐ Associate will pay a portion of Errors and Omissions coverage as follows:

5. Term; Termination: This Agreement will be in effect for 1 year(s) from the effective date. Either party may terminate this Agreement by 1 days' advance written notice to the other party. Broker may terminate this Agreement without notice for wrongful conduct by Associate. Failure by either party to maintain active licensure status pursuant to Chapter 475, Florida Statutes, will be deemed automatic termination. Associate will not, after termination of this Agreement, use to her/his own advantage, or to the advantage of any other person or entity, any information gained from the business of the Broker relating to property for sale, lease, or rental, or Broker's customers or clients. Upon termination of this Agreement, Associate will return all Broker's property to Broker with no copies made or retained by Associate.
6. Confidentiality: Associate acknowledges that Broker may disclose confidential information to Associate during the course of this Agreement. Any such information that is or should be reasonably understood to be confidential or proprietary to Broker, including mailing lists, customer and client lists, sales, costs, unpublished financial information, product and business plans, projections, marketing data, computer data, computer programs and supporting documentation, and Broker's office policy manual, if any, are considered confidential property of Broker. Associate will take reasonable steps and use due care during the term of this Agreement and after its termination to prevent the duplication or disclosure of confidential information, other than by or to Broker's employees or agents who must have access to the information to perform their duties for Broker.
7. Dispute Resolution: This Agreement will be construed under Florida law. All disputes between Associate and another associate in Broker's firm will be resolved by Broker. All disputes between Broker and Associate will be mediated under the rules of the American Arbitration Association or other mediator agreed upon by the parties. The parties will equally divide the mediation fee, if any. In any litigation between Broker and Associate, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs at all levels, unless the following box is checked: ☐ Arbitration: Any dispute not resolved by mediation will be settled by neutral binding arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association or other arbitrator agreed upon by the parties. Each party to any arbitration or litigation (including appeals and interpleaders) will pay its own fees, costs, and expenses, including attorneys' fees at all levels, and will equally split the arbitrators' fees and administrative fees of arbitration.

5. EXTENSION OF CLOSING DATE:

(a) If Paragraph 8(b) is checked and Closing funds from Buyer's lender(s) are not available on Closing Date due to Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Closing Disclosure delivery requirements ("CFPB Requirements"), then Closing Date shall be extended for such period necessary to satisfy CFPB Requirements, provided such period shall not exceed 10 days.

(b) If extreme weather or other condition or event constituting "Force Majeure" (see STANDARD G) causes: (i) disruption of utilities or other services essential for Closing or (ii) Hazard, Wind, Flood or Homeowners' insurance, to become unavailable prior to Closing, Closing shall be extended a reasonable time up to 3 days after restoration of utilities and other services essential to Closing and availability of applicable Hazard, Wind, Flood or Homeowners' insurance. If restoration of such utilities or services and availability of insurance has not occurred within _____ (if left blank, then 14) days after Closing Date, then either party may terminate this Contract by delivering written notice to the other party, and Buyer shall be refunded the Deposit, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.

6. OCCUPANCY AND POSSESSION:

(a) Unless the box in Paragraph 6(b) is checked, Seller shall, at Closing, deliver occupancy and possession of the Property to Buyer free of tenants, occupants and future tenancies. Also, at Closing, Seller shall have removed all personal items and trash from the Property and shall deliver all keys, garage door openers, access devices and codes, as applicable, to Buyer. If occupancy is to be delivered before Closing, Buyer assumes all risks of loss to the Property from date of occupancy, shall be responsible and liable for maintenance from that date, and shall be deemed to have accepted the Property in its existing condition as of time of taking occupancy.

(b) ☐ CHECK IF PROPERTY IS SUBJECT TO LEASE(S) OR OCCUPANCY AFTER CLOSING. If Property is subject to a lease(s) after Closing or is intended to be rented or occupied by third parties beyond Closing, the facts and terms thereof shall be disclosed in writing by Seller to Buyer and copies of the written lease(s) shall be delivered to Buyer, all within 5 days after Effective Date. If Buyer determines, in Buyer's sole discretion, that the lease(s) or terms of occupancy are not acceptable to Buyer, Buyer may terminate this Contract by delivery of written notice of such election to Seller within 5 days after receipt of the above items from Seller, and Buyer shall be refunded the Deposit thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract. Estoppel Letter(s) and Seller's affidavit shall be provided pursuant to STANDARD D. If Property is intended to be occupied by Seller after Closing, see Rider U. POST-CLOSING OCCUPANCY BY SELLER.

7. ASSIGNABILITY: (CHECK ONE): Buyer ☐ may assign and thereby be released from any further liability under this Contract; ☒ may assign but not be released from liability under this Contract; or ☐ may not assign this Contract.

FINANCING

8. FINANCING:

☒ (a) Buyer will pay cash for the purchase of the Property at Closing. There is no financing contingency to Buyer's obligation to close. If Buyer obtains a loan for any part of the Purchase Price of the Property, Buyer acknowledges that any terms and conditions imposed by Buyer's lender(s) or by CFPB Requirements shall not affect or extend the Buyer's obligation to close or otherwise affect any terms or conditions of this Contract.

☐ (b) This Contract is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written loan commitment for a ☐ conventional ☐ FHA ☐ VA or ☐ other _____ (describe) loan on the following terms within _____ (if left blank, then 45) days after Effective Date ("Loan Commitment Date") for (CHECK ONE): ☐ fixed, ☐ adjustable, ☐ fixed or adjustable rate loan in the Loan Amount (See Paragraph 2(c)), at an initial interest rate not to exceed _____ % (if left blank, then prevailing rate based upon Buyer's creditworthiness), and for a term of _____(if left blank, then 30) years ("Financing").

Buyer shall make mortgage loan application for the Financing within _____ (if left blank, then 5) days after Effective Date and use good faith and diligent effort to obtain a written loan commitment for the Financing ("Loan Commitment") and thereafter to close this Contract. Buyer shall keep Seller and Broker fully informed about the status of mortgage loan application and Loan Commitment and authorizes Buyer's mortgage broker and Buyer's lender to disclose such status and progress to Seller and Broker.

Upon Buyer's receipt of Loan Commitment, Buyer shall provide written notice of same to Seller. If Buyer does not receive Loan Commitment by Loan Commitment Date, then thereafter either party may cancel this Contract up to the earlier of:

Electronically Signed using eSignOnline™[Session ID : 3bf08f55-c4b9-494c-b156-e54e9aa49bfe]

(i.) Buyer's delivery of written notice to Seller that Buyer has either received Loan Commitment or elected to waive the financing contingency of this Contract; or (ii.) 7 days prior to the Closing Date specified in Paragraph 4, which date, for purposes of this Paragraph 8(b) (ii), shall not be modified by Paragraph 5(a).

If either party timely cancels this Contract pursuant to this Paragraph 8 and Buyer is not in default under the terms of this Contract, Buyer shall be refunded the Deposit thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract. If neither party has timely canceled this Contract pursuant to this Paragraph 8, then this financing contingency shall be deemed waived by Buyer.

If Buyer delivers written notice of receipt of Loan Commitment to Seller and this Contract does not thereafter close, the Deposit shall be paid to Seller unless failure to close is due to: (1) Seller's default; (2) Property related conditions of the Loan Commitment have not been met (except when such conditions are waived by other provisions of this Contract); (3) appraisal of the Property obtained by Buyer's lender is insufficient to meet terms of the Loan Commitment; or (4) the loan is not funded due to financial failure of Buyer's lender, in which event(s) the Deposit shall be returned to Buyer, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.

☐ (c) Assumption of existing mortgage (see rider for terms).

☐ (d) Purchase money note and mortgage to Seller (see riders; addenda; or special clauses for terms).

CLOSING COSTS, FEES AND CHARGES

9. CLOSING COSTS; TITLE INSURANCE; SURVEY; HOME WARRANTY; SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS:

(a) COSTS TO BE PAID BY SELLER:

- Documentary stamp taxes and surtax on deed, if any
- Owner's Policy and Charges (if Paragraph 9(c) (i) is checked)
- Title search charges (if Paragraph 9(c) (iii) is checked)
- Municipal lien search (if Paragraph 9(c) (i) or (iii) is checked)
- HOA/Condominium Association estoppel fees
- Recording and other fees needed to cure title
- Seller's attorneys' fees
- Other:_____

If, prior to Closing, Seller is unable to meet the AS IS Maintenance Requirement as required by Paragraph 11 a sum equal to 125% of estimated costs to meet the AS IS Maintenance Requirement shall be escrowed at Closing. If actual costs to meet the AS IS Maintenance Requirement exceed escrowed amount, Seller shall pay such actual costs. Any unused portion of escrowed amount(s) shall be returned to Seller.

(b) COSTS TO BE PAID BY BUYER:

- Taxes and recording fees on notes and mortgages
- Recording fees for deed and financing statements
- Owner's Policy and Charges (if Paragraph 9(c)(ii) is checked)
- Survey (and elevation certification, if required)
- Lender's title policy and endorsements
- HOA/Condominium Association application/transfer fees
- Municipal lien search (if Paragraph 9(c) (ii) is checked)
- Other: _____
- Loan expenses
- Appraisal fees
- Buyer's Inspections
- Buyer's attorneys' fees
- All property related insurance
- Owner's Policy Premium (if Paragraph 9 (c) (iii) is checked.)

(c) TITLE EVIDENCE AND INSURANCE: At least _____ (if left blank, then 15, or if Paragraph 8(a) is checked, then 5) days prior to Closing Date ("Title Evidence Deadline"), a title insurance commitment issued by a Florida licensed title insurer, with legible copies of instruments listed as exceptions attached thereto ("Title Commitment") and, after Closing, an owner's policy of title insurance (see STANDARD A for terms) shall be obtained and delivered to Buyer. If Seller has an owner's policy of title insurance covering the Real Property, a copy shall be furnished to Buyer and Closing Agent within 5 days after Effective Date. The owner's title policy premium, title search and closing services (collectively, "Owner's Policy and Charges") shall be paid, as set forth below. The title insurance premium charges for the owner's policy and any lender's policy will be calculated and allocated in accordance with Florida law, but may be reported differently on certain federally mandated closing disclosures and other closing documents.

☐ (i) Seller shall designate Closing Agent and pay for Owner's Policy and Charges, and Buyer shall pay the premium for Buyer's lender's policy and charges for closing services related to the lender's policy, endorsements and loan closing, which amounts shall be paid by Buyer to Closing Agent or such other provider(s) as Buyer may select; or

☐ (ii) Buyer shall designate Closing Agent and pay for Owner's Policy and Charges and charges for closing services related to Buyer's lender's policy, endorsements and loan closing; or

☒ (iii) [MIAMI-DADE/BROWARD REGIONAL PROVISION]: Seller shall furnish a copy of a prior owner's policy of title insurance or other evidence of title and pay fees for: (A) a continuation or update of such title evidence, which is acceptable to Buyer's title insurance underwriter for reissue of coverage; (B) tax search; and (C) municipal lien search. Buyer shall obtain and pay for post-Closing continuation and premium for Buyer's owner's policy, and if applicable, Buyer's lender's policy. Seller shall not be obligated to pay more than $ 400.00 (if left blank, then $200.00) for abstract continuation or title search ordered or performed by Closing Agent.

(d) SURVEY: On or before Title Evidence Deadline, Buyer may, at Buyer's expense, have the Real Property surveyed and certified by a registered Florida surveyor ("Survey"). If Seller has a survey covering the Real Property, a copy shall be furnished to Buyer and Closing Agent within 5 days after Effective Date.

(e) HOME WARRANTY: At Closing, ☐ Buyer ☐ Seller ☒ N/A shall pay for a home warranty plan issued by _____ at a cost not to exceed $_____. A home warranty plan provides for repair or replacement of many of a home's mechanical systems and major built-in appliances in the event of breakdown due to normal wear and tear during the agreement's warranty period.

(f) SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS: At Closing, Seller shall pay: (i) the full amount of liens imposed by a public body ("public body" does not include a Condominium or Homeowner's Association) that are certified, confirmed and ratified before Closing; and (ii) the amount of the public body's most recent estimate or assessment for an improvement which is substantially complete as of Effective Date, but that has not resulted in a lien being imposed on the Property before Closing. Buyer shall pay all other assessments. If special assessments may be paid in installments (CHECK ONE):

☐ (a) Seller shall pay installments due prior to Closing and Buyer shall pay installments due after Closing. Installments prepaid or due for the year of Closing shall be prorated.

☒ (b) Seller shall pay the assessment(s) in full prior to or at the time of Closing.

IF NEITHER BOX IS CHECKED, THEN OPTION (a) SHALL BE DEEMED SELECTED.

This Paragraph 9(f) shall not apply to a special benefit tax lien imposed by a community development district (CDD) pursuant to Chapter 190, F.S., which lien shall be prorated pursuant to STANDARD K.

DISCLOSURES

10. DISCLOSURES:

(a) RADON GAS: Radon is a naturally occurring radioactive gas that, when it is accumulated in a building in sufficient quantities, may present health risks to persons who are exposed to it over time. Levels of radon that exceed federal and state guidelines have been found in buildings in Florida. Additional information regarding radon and radon testing may be obtained from your county health department.

(b) PERMITS DISCLOSURE: Except as may have been disclosed by Seller to Buyer in a written disclosure, Seller does not know of any improvements made to the Property which were made without required permits or made pursuant to permits which have not been properly closed.

(c) MOLD: Mold is naturally occurring and may cause health risks or damage to property. If Buyer is concerned or desires additional information regarding mold, Buyer should contact an appropriate professional.

(d) FLOOD ZONE; ELEVATION CERTIFICATION: Buyer is advised to verify by elevation certificate which flood zone the Property is in, whether flood insurance is required by Buyer's lender, and what restrictions apply to improving the Property and rebuilding in the event of casualty. If Property is in a "Special Flood Hazard Area" or "Coastal Barrier Resources Act" designated area or otherwise protected area identified by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service under the Coastal Barrier Resources Act and the lowest floor elevation for the building(s) and /or flood insurance rating purposes is below minimum flood elevation or is ineligible for flood insurance coverage through the National Flood Insurance Program or private flood insurance as defined in 42 U.S.C. §4012a, Buyer may terminate this Contract by delivering written notice to Seller within _____ (if left blank, then 20) days after Effective Date, and Buyer shall be refunded the Deposit thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract, failing which Buyer accepts existing elevation of buildings and flood zone designation of Property. The National Flood Insurance Program may assess additional fees or adjust premiums for pre-Flood Insurance Rate Map (pre-FIRM) non-primary structures (residential structures in which the insured or spouse does not reside for at least 50% of the year) and an elevation certificate may be required for actuarial rating.

(e) ENERGY BROCHURE: Buyer acknowledges receipt of Florida Energy-Efficiency Rating Information Brochure required by Section 553.996, F.S.

(f) LEAD-BASED PAINT: If Property includes pre-1978 residential housing, a lead-based paint disclosure is mandatory.

(g) HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION/COMMUNITY DISCLOSURE: BUYER SHOULD NOT EXECUTE THIS CONTRACT UNTIL BUYER HAS RECEIVED AND READ THE HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION/COMMUNITY DISCLOSURE, IF APPLICABLE.

Electronically Signed using eSignOnline™[Session ID : 3bf08f55-c4b9-494c-b156-e54e9aa49bfe]

(h) PROPERTY TAX DISCLOSURE SUMMARY: BUYER SHOULD NOT RELY ON THE SELLER'S CURRENT PROPERTY TAXES AS THE AMOUNT OF PROPERTY TAXES THAT THE BUYER MAY BE OBLIGATED TO PAY IN THE YEAR SUBSEQUENT TO PURCHASE. A CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP OR PROPERTY IMPROVEMENTS TRIGGERS REASSESSMENTS OF THE PROPERTY THAT COULD RESULT IN HIGHER PROPERTY TAXES. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS CONCERNING VALUATION, CONTACT THE COUNTY PROPERTY APPRAISER'S OFFICE FOR INFORMATION.

(i) FIRPTA TAX WITHHOLDING: Seller shall inform Buyer in writing if Seller is a "foreign person" as defined by the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act ("FIRPTA"). Buyer and Seller shall comply with FIRPTA, which may require Seller to provide additional cash at Closing. If Seller is not a "foreign person", Seller can provide Buyer, at or prior to Closing, a certification of non-foreign status, under penalties of perjury, to inform Buyer and Closing Agent that no withholding is required. See STANDARD V for further information pertaining to FIRPTA. Buyer and Seller are advised to seek legal counsel and tax advice regarding their respective rights, obligations, reporting and withholding requirements pursuant to FIRPTA.

(j) SELLER DISCLOSURE: Seller knows of no facts materially affecting the value of the Real Property which are not readily observable and which have not been disclosed to Buyer. Except as provided for in the preceding sentence, Seller extends and intends no warranty and makes no representation of any type, either express or implied, as to the physical condition or history of the Property. Except as otherwise disclosed in writing Seller has received no written or verbal notice from any governmental entity or agency as to a currently uncorrected building, environmental or safety code violation.

PROPERTY MAINTENANCE, CONDITION, INSPECTIONS AND EXAMINATIONS

11. PROPERTY MAINTENANCE: Except for ordinary wear and tear and Casualty Loss, Seller shall maintain the Property, including, but not limited to, lawn, shrubbery, and pool, in the condition existing as of Effective Date ("AS IS Maintenance Requirement").

12. PROPERTY INSPECTION; RIGHT TO CANCEL:

(a) PROPERTY INSPECTIONS AND RIGHT TO CANCEL: Buyer shall have 15 (if left blank, then 15) days after Effective Date ("Inspection Period") within which to have such inspections of the Property performed as Buyer shall desire during the Inspection Period. If Buyer determines, in Buyer's sole discretion, that the Property is not acceptable to Buyer, Buyer may terminate this Contract by delivering written notice of such election to Seller prior to expiration of Inspection Period. If Buyer timely terminates this Contract, the Deposit paid shall be returned to Buyer, thereupon, Buyer and Seller shall be released of all further obligations under this Contract; however, Buyer shall be responsible for prompt payment for such inspections, for repair of damage to, and restoration of, the Property resulting from such inspections, and shall provide Seller with paid receipts for all work done on the Property (the preceding provision shall survive termination of this Contract). Unless Buyer exercises the right to terminate granted herein, Buyer accepts the physical condition of the Property and any violation of governmental, building, environmental, and safety codes, restrictions, or requirements, but subject to Seller's continuing AS IS Maintenance Requirement, and Buyer shall be responsible for any and all repairs and improvements required by Buyer's lender.

(b) WALK-THROUGH INSPECTION/RE-INSPECTION: On the day prior to Closing Date, or on Closing Date prior to time of Closing, as specified by Buyer, Buyer or Buyer's representative may perform a walk-through (and follow-up walk-through, if necessary) inspection of the Property solely to confirm that all items of Personal Property are on the Property and to verify that Seller has maintained the Property as required by the AS IS Maintenance Requirement and has met all other contractual obligations.

(c) SELLER ASSISTANCE AND COOPERATION IN CLOSE-OUT OF BUILDING PERMITS: If Buyer's inspection of the Property identifies open or needed building permits, then Seller shall promptly deliver to Buyer all plans, written documentation or other information in Seller's possession, knowledge, or control relating to improvements to the Property which are the subject of such open or needed Permits, and shall promptly cooperate in good faith with Buyer's efforts to obtain estimates of repairs or other work necessary to resolve such Permit issues. Seller's obligation to cooperate shall include Seller's execution of necessary authorizations, consents, or other documents necessary for Buyer to conduct inspections and have estimates of such repairs or work prepared, but in fulfilling such obligation, Seller shall not be required to expend, or become obligated to expend, any money.

(d) ASSIGNMENT OF REPAIR AND TREATMENT CONTRACTS AND WARRANTIES: At Buyer's option and cost, Seller will, at Closing, assign all assignable repair, treatment and maintenance contracts and warranties to Buyer.

ESCROW AGENT AND BROKER

13. ESCROW AGENT: Any Closing Agent or Escrow Agent (collectively "Agent") receiving the Deposit, other funds and other items is authorized, and agrees by acceptance of them, to deposit them promptly, hold same in escrow within the State of Florida and, subject to COLLECTION, disburse them in accordance with terms and conditions of this Contract. Failure of funds to become COLLECTED shall not excuse Buyer's performance. When conflicting demands for the Deposit are received, or Agent has a good faith doubt as to entitlement to the Deposit, Agent may take such actions permitted by this Paragraph 13, as Agent deems advisable. If in doubt as to Agent's duties or liabilities under this Contract, Agent may, at Agent's option, continue to hold the subject matter of the escrow until the parties agree to its disbursement or until a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine the rights of the parties, or Agent may deposit same with the clerk of the circuit court having jurisdiction of the dispute. An attorney who represents a party and also acts as Agent may represent such party in such action. Upon notifying all parties concerned of such action, all liability on the part of Agent shall fully terminate, except to the extent of accounting for any items previously delivered out of escrow. If a licensed real estate broker, Agent will comply with provisions of Chapter 475, F.S., as amended and FREC rules to timely resolve escrow disputes through mediation, arbitration, interpleader or an escrow disbursement order.

Any proceeding between Buyer and Seller wherein Agent is made a party because of acting as Agent hereunder, or in any proceeding where Agent interpleads the subject matter of the escrow, Agent shall recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred, to be paid pursuant to court order out of the escrowed funds or equivalent. Agent shall not be liable to any party or person for mis-delivery of any escrowed items, unless such mis-delivery is due to Agent's willful breach of this Contract or Agent's gross negligence. This Paragraph 13 shall survive Closing or termination of this Contract.

14. PROFESSIONAL ADVICE; BROKER LIABILITY: Broker advises Buyer and Seller to verify Property condition, square footage, and all other facts and representations made pursuant to this Contract and to consult appropriate professionals for legal, tax, environmental, and other specialized advice concerning matters affecting the Property and the transaction contemplated by this Contract. Broker represents to Buyer that Broker does not reside on the Property and that all representations (oral, written or otherwise) by Broker are based on Seller representations or public records. BUYER AGREES TO RELY SOLELY ON SELLER, PROFESSIONAL INSPECTORS AND GOVERNMENTAL AGENCIES FOR VERIFICATION OF PROPERTY CONDITION, SQUARE FOOTAGE AND FACTS THAT MATERIALLY AFFECT PROPERTY VALUE AND NOT ON THE REPRESENTATIONS (ORAL, WRITTEN OR OTHERWISE) OF BROKER. Buyer and Seller (individually, the "Indemnifying Party") each individually indemnifies, holds harmless, and releases Broker and Broker's officers, directors, agents and employees from all liability for loss or damage, including all costs and expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees at all levels, suffered or incurred by Broker and Broker's officers, directors, agents and employees in connection with or arising from claims, demands or causes of action instituted by Buyer or Seller based on: (i) inaccuracy of information provided by the Indemnifying Party or from public records; (ii) Indemnifying Party's misstatement(s) or failure to perform contractual obligations; (iii) Broker's performance, at Indemnifying Party's request, of any task beyond the scope of services regulated by Chapter 475, F.S., as amended, including Broker's referral, recommendation or retention of any vendor for, or on behalf of Indemnifying Party; (iv) products or services provided by any such vendor for, or on behalf of, Indemnifying Party; and (v) expenses incurred by any such vendor. Buyer and Seller each assumes full responsibility for selecting and compensating their respective vendors and paying their other costs under this Contract whether or not this transaction closes. This Paragraph 14 will not relieve Broker of statutory obligations under Chapter 475, F.S., as amended. For purposes of this Paragraph 14, Broker will be treated as a party to this Contract. This Paragraph 14 shall survive Closing or termination of this Contract.

DEFAULT AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

15. DEFAULT:

(a) BUYER DEFAULT: If Buyer fails, neglects or refuses to perform Buyer's obligations under this Contract, including payment of the Deposit, within the time(s) specified, Seller may elect to recover and retain the Deposit for the account of Seller as agreed upon liquidated damages, consideration for execution of this Contract, and in full settlement of any claims, whereupon Buyer and Seller shall be relieved from all further obligations under this Contract, or Seller, at Seller's option, may, pursuant to Paragraph 16, proceed in equity to enforce Seller's rights under this Contract. The portion of the Deposit, if any, paid to Listing Broker upon default by Buyer, shall be split equally between Listing Broker and Cooperating Broker; provided however, Cooperating Broker's share shall not be greater than the commission amount Listing Broker had agreed to pay to Cooperating Broker.

(b) SELLER DEFAULT: If for any reason other than failure of Seller to make Seller's title marketable after reasonable diligent effort, Seller fails, neglects or refuses to perform Seller's obligations under this Contract, Buyer may elect to receive return of Buyer's Deposit without thereby waiving any action for damages resulting from Seller's breach, and, pursuant to Paragraph 16, may seek to recover such damages or seek specific performance.

This Paragraph 15 shall survive Closing or termination of this Contract.

16. DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Unresolved controversies, claims and other matters in question between Buyer and Seller arising out of, or relating to, this Contract or its breach, enforcement or interpretation ("Dispute") will be settled as follows:

(a) Buyer and Seller will have 10 days after the date conflicting demands for the Deposit are made to attempt to resolve such Dispute, failing which, Buyer and Seller shall submit such Dispute to mediation under Paragraph 16(b).

(b) Buyer and Seller shall attempt to settle Disputes in an amicable manner through mediation pursuant to Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators and Chapter 44, F.S., as amended (the "Mediation Rules"). The mediator must be certified or must have experience in the real estate industry. Injunctive relief may be sought without first complying with this Paragraph 16(b). Disputes not settled pursuant to this Paragraph 16 may be resolved by instituting action in the appropriate court having jurisdiction of the matter. This Paragraph 16 shall survive Closing or termination of this Contract.

17. ATTORNEY'S FEES; COSTS: The parties will split equally any mediation fee incurred in any mediation permitted by this Contract, and each party will pay their own costs, expenses and fees, including attorney's fees, incurred in conducting the mediation. In any litigation permitted by this Contract, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party costs and fees, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred in conducting the litigation. This Paragraph 17 shall survive Closing or termination of this Contract.

STANDARDS FOR REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS ("STANDARDS")

18. STANDARDS:

A. TITLE:

(i) TITLE EVIDENCE; RESTRICTIONS; EASEMENTS; LIMITATIONS: Within the time period provided in Paragraph 9(c), the Title Commitment, with legible copies of instruments listed as exceptions attached thereto, shall be issued and delivered to Buyer. The Title Commitment shall set forth those matters to be discharged by Seller at or before Closing and shall provide that, upon recording of the deed to Buyer, an owner's policy of title insurance in the amount of the Purchase Price, shall be issued to Buyer insuring Buyer's marketable title to the Real Property, subject only to the following matters: (a) comprehensive land use plans, zoning, and other land use restrictions, prohibitions and requirements imposed by governmental authority; (b) restrictions and matters appearing on the Plat or otherwise common to the subdivision; (c) outstanding oil, gas and mineral rights of record without right of entry; (d) unplatted public utility easements of record (located contiguous to real property lines and not more than 10 feet in width as to rear or front lines and 7 1/2 feet in width as to side lines); (e) taxes for year of Closing and subsequent years; and (f) assumed mortgages and purchase money mortgages, if any (if additional items, attach addendum); provided, that, none prevent use of Property for RESIDENTIAL PURPOSES. If there exists at Closing any violation of items identified in (b) – (f) above, then the same shall be deemed a title defect. Marketable title shall be determined according to applicable Title Standards adopted by authority of The Florida Bar and in accordance with law.

(ii) TITLE EXAMINATION: Buyer shall have 5 days after receipt of Title Commitment to examine it and notify Seller in writing specifying defect(s), if any, that render title unmarketable. If Seller provides Title Commitment and it is delivered to Buyer less than 5 days prior to Closing Date, Buyer may extend Closing for up to 5 days after date of receipt to examine same in accordance with this STANDARD A. Seller shall have 30 days ("Cure Period") after receipt of Buyer's notice to take reasonable diligent efforts to remove defects. If Buyer fails to so notify Seller, Buyer shall be deemed to have accepted title as it then is. If Seller cures defects within Cure Period, Seller will deliver written notice to Buyer (with proof of cure acceptable to Buyer and Buyer's attorney) and the parties will close this Contract on Closing Date (or if Closing Date has passed, within 10 days after Buyer's receipt of Seller's notice). If Seller is unable to cure defects within Cure Period, then Buyer may, within 5 days after expiration of Cure Period, deliver written notice to Seller: (a) extending Cure Period for a specified period not to exceed 120 days within which Seller shall continue to use reasonable diligent effort to remove or cure the defects ("Extended Cure Period"); or (b) electing to accept title with existing defects and close this Contract on Closing

Date (or if Closing Date has passed, within the earlier of 10 days after end of Extended Cure Period or Buyer's receipt of Seller's notice), or (c) electing to terminate this Contract and receive a refund of the Deposit, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract. If after reasonable diligent effort, Seller is unable to timely cure defects, and Buyer does not waive the defects, this Contract shall terminate, and Buyer shall receive a refund of the Deposit, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.

B. SURVEY: If Survey discloses encroachments on the Real Property or that improvements located thereon encroach on setback lines, easements, or lands of others, or violate any restrictions, covenants, or applicable governmental regulations described in STANDARD A (i)(a), (b) or (d) above, Buyer shall deliver written notice of such matters, together with a copy of Survey, to Seller within 5 days after Buyer's receipt of Survey, but no later than Closing. If Buyer timely delivers such notice and Survey to Seller, such matters identified in the notice and Survey shall constitute a title defect, subject to cure obligations of STANDARD A above. If Seller has delivered a prior survey, Seller shall, at Buyer's request, execute an affidavit of "no change" to the Real Property since the preparation of such prior survey, to the extent the affirmations therein are true and correct.

C. INGRESS AND EGRESS: Seller represents that there is ingress and egress to the Real Property and title to the Real Property is insurable in accordance with STANDARD A without exception for lack of legal right of access.

D. LEASE INFORMATION: Seller shall, at least 10 days prior to Closing, furnish to Buyer estoppel letters from tenant(s)/occupant(s) specifying nature and duration of occupancy, rental rates, advanced rent and security deposits paid by tenant(s) or occupant(s)("Estoppel Letter(s)"). If Seller is unable to obtain such Estoppel Letter(s) the same information shall be furnished by Seller to Buyer within that time period in the form of a Seller's affidavit and Buyer may thereafter contact tenant(s) or occupant(s) to confirm such information. If Estoppel Letter(s) or Seller's affidavit, if any, differ materially from Seller's representations and lease(s) provided pursuant to Paragraph 6, or if tenant(s)/occupant(s) fail or refuse to confirm Seller's affidavit, Buyer may deliver written notice to Seller within 5 days after receipt of such information, but no later than 5 days prior to Closing Date, terminating this Contract and receive a refund of the Deposit, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract. Seller shall, at Closing, deliver and assign all leases to Buyer who shall assume Seller's obligations thereunder.

E. LIENS: Seller shall furnish to Buyer at Closing an affidavit attesting (i) to the absence of any financing statement, claims of lien or potential lienors known to Seller and (ii) that there have been no improvements or repairs to the Real Property for 90 days immediately preceding Closing Date. If the Real Property has been improved or repaired within that time, Seller shall deliver releases or waivers of construction liens executed by all general contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and materialmen in addition to Seller's lien affidavit setting forth names of all such general contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and materialmen, further affirming that all charges for improvements or repairs which could serve as a basis for a construction lien or a claim for damages have been paid or will be paid at Closing.

F. TIME: Calendar days shall be used in computing time periods. Time is of the essence in this Contract. Other than time for acceptance and Effective Date as set forth in Paragraph 3, any time periods provided for or dates specified in this Contract, whether preprinted, handwritten, typewritten or inserted herein, which shall end or occur on a Saturday, Sunday, or a national legal holiday (see 5 U.S.C. 6103) shall extend to 5:00 p.m. (where the Property is located) of the next business day.

G. FORCE MAJEURE: Buyer or Seller shall not be required to perform any obligation under this Contract or be liable to each other for damages so long as performance or non-performance of the obligation is delayed, caused or prevented by Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" means: hurricanes, earthquakes, floods, fire, acts of God, unusual transportation delays, wars, insurrections, and acts of terrorism, and which, by exercise of reasonable diligent effort, the non-performing party is unable in whole or in part to prevent or overcome. All time periods, including Closing Date, will be extended for the period that the Force Majeure prevents performance under this Contract, provided, however, if such Force Majeure continues to prevent performance under this Contract more than 14 days beyond Closing Date, then either party may terminate this Contract by delivering written notice to the other and the Deposit shall be refunded to Buyer, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.

H. CONVEYANCE: Seller shall convey marketable title to the Real Property by statutory warranty, trustee's, personal representative's, or guardian's deed, as appropriate to the status of Seller, subject only to matters described in STANDARD A and those accepted by Buyer. Personal Property shall, at request of Buyer, be transferred by absolute bill of sale with warranty of title, subject only to such matters as may be provided for in this Contract.

I. CLOSING LOCATION; DOCUMENTS; AND PROCEDURE:

Electronically Signed using eSignOnline™[Session ID : 3bf08f55-c4b9-494c-b156-e54e9aa49bfe]

(i) LOCATION: Closing will take place in the county where the Real Property is located at the office of the attorney or other closing agent ("Closing Agent") designated by the party paying for the owner's policy of title insurance, or, if no title insurance, designated by Seller. Closing may be conducted by mail or electronic means.
(ii) CLOSING DOCUMENTS: Seller shall at or prior to Closing, execute and deliver, as applicable, deed, bill of sale, certificate(s) of title or other documents necessary to transfer title to the Property, construction lien affidavit (s), owner's possession and no lien affidavit(s), and assignment(s) of leases. Seller shall provide Buyer with paid receipts for all work done on the Property pursuant to this Contract. Buyer shall furnish and pay for, as applicable the survey, flood elevation certification, and documents required by Buyer's lender.
(iii) PROCEDURE: The deed shall be recorded upon COLLECTION of all closing funds. If the Title Commitment provides insurance against adverse matters pursuant to Section 627.7841, F.S., as amended, the escrow closing procedure required by STANDARD J shall be waived, and Closing Agent shall, subject to COLLECTION of all closing funds, disburse at Closing the brokerage fees to Broker and the net sale proceeds to Seller.

J. ESCROW CLOSING PROCEDURE: If Title Commitment issued pursuant to Paragraph 9(c) does not provide for insurance against adverse matters as permitted under Section 627.7841, F.S., as amended, the following escrow and closing procedures shall apply: (1) all Closing proceeds shall be held in escrow by the Closing Agent for a period of not more than 10 days after Closing; (2) if Seller's title is rendered unmarketable, through no fault of Buyer, Buyer shall, within the 10 day period, notify Seller in writing of the defect and Seller shall have 30 days from date of receipt of such notification to cure the defect; (3) if Seller fails to timely cure the defect, the Deposit and all Closing funds paid by Buyer shall, within 5 days after written demand by Buyer, be refunded to Buyer and, simultaneously with such repayment, Buyer shall return the Personal Property, vacate the Real Property and re-convey the Property to Seller by special warranty deed and bill of sale; and (4) if Buyer fails to make timely demand for refund of the Deposit, Buyer shall take title as is, waiving all rights against Seller as to any intervening defect except as may be available to Buyer by virtue of warranties contained in the deed or bill of sale.

K. PRORATIONS; CREDITS: The following recurring items will be made current (if applicable) and prorated as of the day prior to Closing Date, or date of occupancy if occupancy occurs before Closing Date: real estate taxes (including special benefit tax assessments imposed by a CDD), interest, bonds, association fees, insurance, rents and other expenses of Property. Buyer shall have option of taking over existing policies of insurance, if assumable, in which event premiums shall be prorated. Cash at Closing shall be increased or decreased as may be required by prorations to be made through day prior to Closing. Advance rent and security deposits, if any, will be credited to Buyer. Escrow deposits held by Seller's mortgagee will be paid to Seller. Taxes shall be prorated based on current year's tax with due allowance made for maximum allowable discount, homestead and other exemptions. If Closing occurs on a date when current year's millage is not fixed but current year's assessment is available, taxes will be prorated based upon such assessment and prior year's millage. If current year's assessment is not available, then taxes will be prorated on prior year's tax. If there are completed improvements on the Real Property by January 1st of year of Closing, which improvements were not in existence on January 1st of prior year, then taxes shall be prorated based upon prior year's millage and at an equitable assessment to be agreed upon between the parties, failing which, request shall be made to the County Property Appraiser for an informal assessment taking into account available exemptions. A tax proration based on an estimate shall, at either party's request, be readjusted upon receipt of current year's tax bill. This STANDARD K shall survive Closing.

L. ACCESS TO PROPERTY TO CONDUCT APPRAISALS, INSPECTIONS, AND WALK-THROUGH: Seller shall, upon reasonable notice, provide utilities service and access to Property for appraisals and inspections, including a walk-through (or follow-up walk-through if necessary) prior to Closing.

M. RISK OF LOSS: If, after Effective Date, but before Closing, Property is damaged by fire or other casualty ("Casualty Loss") and cost of restoration (which shall include cost of pruning or removing damaged trees) does not exceed 1.5% of Purchase Price, cost of restoration shall be an obligation of Seller and Closing shall proceed pursuant to terms of this Contract. If restoration is not completed as of Closing, a sum equal to 125% of estimated cost to complete restoration (not to exceed 1.5% of Purchase Price), will be escrowed at Closing. If actual cost of restoration exceeds escrowed amount, Seller shall pay such actual costs (but, not in excess of 1.5% of Purchase Price). Any unused portion of escrowed amount shall be returned to Seller. If cost of restoration exceeds 1.5% of Purchase Price, Buyer shall elect to either take Property "as is" together with the 1.5%, or receive a refund of the Deposit, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract. Seller's sole obligation with respect to tree damage by casualty or other natural occurrence shall be cost of pruning or removal.

N. 1031 EXCHANGE: If either Seller or Buyer wish to enter into a like-kind exchange (either simultaneously with Closing or deferred) under Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code ("Exchange"), the other party shall cooperate in all reasonable respects to effectuate the Exchange, including execution of documents; provided, however, cooperating party shall incur no liability or expense related to the Exchange, and Closing shall not be contingent upon, nor extended or delayed by, such Exchange.

O. CONTRACT NOT RECORDABLE; PERSONS BOUND; NOTICE; DELIVERY; COPIES; CONTRACT EXECUTION: Neither this Contract nor any notice of it shall be recorded in any public records. This Contract shall be binding on, and inure to the benefit of, the parties and their respective heirs or successors in interest. Whenever the context permits, singular shall include plural and one gender shall include all. Notice and delivery given by or to the attorney or broker (including such broker's real estate licensee) representing any party shall be as effective as if given by or to that party. All notices must be in writing and may be made by mail, personal delivery or electronic (including "pdf") media. A facsimile or electronic (including "pdf") copy of this Contract and any signatures hereon shall be considered for all purposes as an original. This Contract may be executed by use of electronic signatures, as determined by Florida's Electronic Signature Act and other applicable laws.

P. INTEGRATION; MODIFICATION: This Contract contains the full and complete understanding and agreement of Buyer and Seller with respect to the transaction contemplated by this Contract and no prior agreements or representations shall be binding upon Buyer or Seller unless included in this Contract. No modification to or change in this Contract shall be valid or binding upon Buyer or Seller unless in writing and executed by the parties intended to be bound by it.

Q. WAIVER: Failure of Buyer or Seller to insist on compliance with, or strict performance of, any provision of this Contract, or to take advantage of any right under this Contract, shall not constitute a waiver of other provisions or rights.

R. RIDERS; ADDENDA; TYPEWRITTEN OR HANDWRITTEN PROVISIONS: Riders, addenda, and typewritten or handwritten provisions shall control all printed provisions of this Contract in conflict with them.

S. COLLECTION or COLLECTED: "COLLECTION" or "COLLECTED" means any checks tendered or received, including Deposits, have become actually and finally collected and deposited in the account of Escrow Agent or Closing Agent. Closing and disbursement of funds and delivery of closing documents may be delayed by Closing Agent until such amounts have been COLLECTED in Closing Agent's accounts.

T. LOAN COMMITMENT: "Loan Commitment" means a statement by the lender setting forth the terms and conditions upon which the lender is willing to make a particular mortgage loan to a particular borrower. Neither a pre-approval letter nor a prequalification letter shall be deemed a Loan Commitment for purposes of this Contract.

U. APPLICABLE LAW AND VENUE: This Contract shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida and venue for resolution of all disputes, whether by mediation, arbitration or litigation, shall lie in the county where the Real Property is located.

V. FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN REAL PROPERTY TAX ACT ("FIRPTA"): If a seller of U.S. real property is a "foreign person" as defined by FIRPTA, Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code requires the buyer of the real property to withhold up to 15% of the amount realized by the seller on the transfer and remit the withheld amount to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) unless an exemption to the required withholding applies or the seller has obtained a Withholding Certificate from the IRS authorizing a reduced amount of withholding. Due to the complexity and potential risks of FIRPTA, Buyer and Seller should seek legal and tax advice regarding compliance, particularly if an "exemption" is claimed on the sale of residential property for $300,000 or less.

(i) No withholding is required under Section 1445 if the Seller is not a "foreign person," provided Buyer accepts proof of same from Seller, which may include Buyer's receipt of certification of non-foreign status from Seller, signed under penalties of perjury, stating that Seller is not a foreign person and containing Seller's name, U.S. taxpayer identification number and home address (or office address, in the case of an entity), as provided for in 26 CFR 1.1445-2(b). Otherwise, Buyer shall withhold the applicable percentage of the amount realized by Seller on the transfer and timely remit said funds to the IRS.

(ii) If Seller has received a Withholding Certificate from the IRS which provides for reduced or eliminated withholding in this transaction and provides same to Buyer by Closing, then Buyer shall withhold the reduced sum, if any required, and timely remit said funds to the IRS.

(iii) If prior to Closing Seller has submitted a completed application to the IRS for a Withholding Certificate and has provided to Buyer the notice required by 26 CFR 1.1445-1(c) (2)(i)(B) but no Withholding Certificate has been received as of Closing, Buyer shall, at Closing, withhold the applicable percentage of the amount realized by Seller on the transfer and, at Buyer's option, either (a) timely remit the withheld funds to the IRS or (b) place the funds in escrow, at Seller's expense, with an escrow agent selected by Buyer and pursuant to terms negotiated by the parties, to be subsequently disbursed in accordance with the Withholding Certificate issued by the IRS or remitted directly to the IRS if the Seller's application is rejected or upon terms set forth in the escrow agreement.

(iv) In the event the net proceeds due Seller are not sufficient to meet the withholding requirement(s) in this transaction, Seller shall deliver to Buyer, at Closing, the additional COLLECTED funds necessary to satisfy the

552 applicable requirement and thereafter Buyer shall timely remit said funds to the IRS or escrow the funds for 553 disbursement in accordance with the final determination of the IRS, as applicable.
554 (v) Upon remitting funds to the IRS pursuant to this STANDARD, Buyer shall provide Seller copies of IRS Forms 555 8288 and 8288-A, as filed.

Re: Federal Trade Commission and State of Florida v. Jeremy Lee Marcus, et al.
USDC SD FL Case No. 17-60907-CIV-MORENO

Dear Ms. Finley,

As you are aware, this firm represents Jonathan E. Perlman, as Receiver for the Receivership Defendants[1] (the "Receiver") in the above-referenced case.

By quit claiming your interest in your home to Jeremy Marcus, the Receiver agrees that you are not waiving any potential right you may have to assert an equitable lien in the property based solely on a brokerage fee you claim to have earned in its purchase, which you agree will in no event exceed $107,500.

Should you have any questions or wish to discuss this matter further, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned. Thank you in advance for your cooperation in this matter.

[1] The "Receivership Defendants" means Financial Freedom National, Inc. f/k/a Institute for Financial Freedom, Inc. and Marine Career Institute Sea Frontiers, Inc. also d/b/a 321 Loans, Instahelp America, Inc., Helping America Group, United Financial Support, Breeze Financial Solutions 321Financial Education, Credit Health Plan, Credit Specialists of America, American Advocacy Alliance, and Associated Administrative Services; 321Loans, Inc., f/k/a 321 Loans, Inc. also d/b/a 321Financial, Inc.; Instahelp America, Inc. f/k/a Helping America Team, Inc. also d/b/a Helping America Group; Breeze Financial Solutions, Inc. also d/b/a Credit Health Plan and Credit Maximizing Program; US Legal Club, LLC; Active Debt Solutions, LLC f/k/a Active Debt Solutions, Inc. also d/b/a Guardian Legal Center; Guardian LG, LLC also d/b/a Guardian Legal Group; American Credit Security, LLC f/k/a America Credit Shield, LLC; Paralegal Support Group LLC f/k/a Paralegal Support LLC; and Associated Administrative Services, LLC also d/b/a Jobfax, and their divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, assigns, and any fictitious business entities or business names created or used by these entities, or any of them. The Receivership Defendants were expanded to include Viking Management Services, LLC, Cockburn & Associate LLC, Omni Management Partners LLC, Discount Marketing USA, S.A., JLMJP Pompano, LLC, Nantucket Cove of Illinois, LLC, Halfpay International, LLC, Halfpay NV, LLC, HP Properties Group, Inc., HP Media, Inc., White Light Media LLC, Blue42, LLC as Additional Receivership Entities. ("Expansion Order") [ECF No. 102]. The Receiver understands that Plaintiffs will be filing an amended complaint that includes the additional Receivership Entities as additional "Receivership Defendants."

Very truly yours,

Heather L. Harmon
